VINCENT J. WANG

vincent@integrationlaw.com.tw

Vincent J. Wang is a Taiwanese attorney with over 10 years of experience in insurance coverage and financial matters, representing insurers in a wide range of significant coverage disputes. Because of his experience and close relationship with insurers, insurance agents, brokers, and insurance associations, Mr. Wang is regularly invited to participate in conferences convened by the Insurance Bureau, Financial Supervisory Commission, and other government offices in Taiwan.

With significant knowledge and expertise in the fields of insurance coverage and financial matters, Mr. Wang is also frequently invited to speak at training courses and seminars held by industry associations and private businesses. Because of his various interactions with key players in the industry, he can approach legal issues from multiple perspectives. When litigating disputes, facilitating business transactions, strategizing investment structures, and optimizing online or offline marketing, Mr. Wang is able to provide practical solutions to his clients addressing both legal and business issues.

Additionally, Mr. Wang has worked across a diverse range of cases, including aesthetic medicine, cosmetics, skincare products, and celebrity endorsements. Furthermore, he is also familiar with innovative business trends and business models associated with the Internet of Things (IoT).

Representative Matters

Taiwan Insurance Litigation
